LOCAL NEWS.

Calla Lilly flour $2.05 at E. A. Williams.

I. M. Hartzel, of Brighton, Iowa, is visiting friends here.

Frank Huntington, of Cincinnati, sends the necessary amount to put his credit up to June, 1907.

John Townley and wife, who had been spending two weeks at Eldorado Springs, returned to this city last Sunday.

Elmer Sparks, who resides with his mother near Glensted, starts this week for a trip to points in Ohio, the first city of interest being Cincinnati.

The pupils of the public school will have to-day and to-morrow as holidays owing to the Morgan County Teachers' Association being in session here this week.

Miss Maude Manning departed Saturday for New Orleans, where she will spend the winter with relatives. She accompanied Mrs. Knipmeyer as far as Memphis.

Rev. J. L. Moon, of Glensted, was here Monday, having filled an appointment at Otterville Sunday. He goes through from here to Maries county on church work.

Frank Polston, who had been located for several months at Billings, Montana, arrived home last Friday, and will spend the winter here with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Polston.

Shores Williams was in the city this week, in the interest of a big commission firm in St. Louis. We hope to be able to report something definite about this big enterprise in the near future.

D. C. Hardy, the druggist, expects to be in his new quarters in the corner room of the Mason & Hardy block by the first of October, and Dr. J. W. Boles will move his drug store to the room vacated by Mr. Hardy.

Col. F. S. Bowman, who gets his share of the good things, went to Medicine Lodge, Kansas, this week, where he manipulates as auctioneer at a fine stock sale. Republicans are always in demand, and always equal to the emergency.

Mrs. A. B. Knipmeyer left Saturday noon over the Rock Island for Memphis, Tenn., where she goes to join her husband, who preceded her some two weeks ago. We dislike to lose such families as the Knipmeyers, still we are proud of the fact that a city like Memphis must call on Versailles for competent legal talent.

Prof. J. M. Stith has resigned his position as teacher of the 6th and 7th grades of our public school, which holds forth in the south room in the Martin Hotel block. Prof. Stith has been off duty for some time, owing to sickness, and that, coupled with other disadvantages in connection with his school work, caused him to resign. Wray Witten is carrying on these grades until the Board can fill the vacancy.

The steel rails for the new Versailles & Sedalia Railway are being unloaded on the ground here, and now that the grading has been completed, track-laying on the spur to the Richland will be pushed at a rapid rate until the road is finished. The big pile driver at work in the north-west part of town near the right of way of the Rock Island, has attracted many sight-seers during this fine weather, to watch the big machine at work.

Henry Kueck, son of Dr. J. D. Kueck, of Stover, has accepted a clerical position with the First National Bank of this city.

Good 4-room house, 2 lots, 2 cisterns, barn and young fruit; well located. For sale, exchange or rent. E. A. CREWSON.

That New Mexico-Texas blizzard of last week veered around and gave us a slap of its tail Tuesday night, but it was about out of business after its rough journey over the Ozarks.

Mrs. Notestine, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Boaz, the past few weeks, left for her home in Jacksonville, Alabama, on the noon train Wednesday.

Versailles Lodge, No. 231, I. O. O. F., meets every Tuesday night. Business of importance demands the attention of every member. Come out.

Bro. Boaz, of the Presbyterian church, delivered an eloquent and convincing temperance sermon at the morning session last Sunday, but he didn't have the right congregation; at night he talked to the men of the church; then he had the right congregation, but not all of them.

A surprise party was given Misses Myrtle and Mabel Summers, last Friday night, at the home of J. R. Potter in the northeast part of town, and the young folks who participated report an enjoyable time. The two young ladies leave this week, with their parents, for the State of Washington.

Resolutions of Respect.

Died, Oct. 11, 1906, Roy S. Moore. Whereas, our dear young brother and friend and co-worker has gone from our midst into the Great Beyond,—Be it resolved:

1. That we are inexpressibly sad, we shall miss his gentle presence, which encouraged and stimulated our efforts, awakened our zeal and quickened our spiritual impulses.

2. That we tender our sincere sympathy to the stricken family and near relatives, and commend them to the love of God, which passeth all understanding. There is no sorrow that Heaven can not heal.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be handed the family and that a record be made of them in the minutes of our Sunday school.

Mrs. GWYNN,
C. E. NILSON,
MISS BERSACH,

Committee.

Adopted by Methodist Sunday school, Oct. 21, 1906.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Chancellor Commander, Officers and Members of Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 192.

We your committee of memorial beg to offer the following reflections, as an expression of the members of this lodge, touching the life and character of our beloved brother, Roy S. Moore, lately deceased.

Roy Moore has lived in this community from childhood and for his associates has done much good, by his industry and business integrity he won and retained the respect and confidence of his friends, which were legion. He enjoyed the good things of earth and social converse of his business associates. His life was not without its sorrows and perhaps misfortunes, but these he bore with seeming courage and fortitude, until by the appearance of great mental depression, his drama of life closed, October 10th, 1906.

The number of his friends and his many friendly acts bore eloquent testimony to his worth in the ranks of Pythian Knighthood. Let us hold him in grateful and affectionate remembrance.

Resolved, That we tender to his bereaved parents, brother and sister, our sympathy and consolation in their great bereavement.

Resolved, That a page of our lodge record be dedicated to his memory, wherein shall be spread these resolutions, and be it further.

Resolved, That an engrossed copy thereof be delivered to the family of our deceased brother, and that copies be furnished to the press.

W. B. TONN,
I. M. SCHANNEN,
G. M. HARGETT,

Committee.

High Patent hard wheat flour $2.00 at E. A. Williams.

Miss Walt, Gunn made a visit last Sunday with friends in Tipton.

Mrs. Wray Witten is visiting relatives and friends in the north part of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Livingston, of Sedalia, came in Sunday for a visit with the folks here, returning Tuesday. Miss Mabel Livingston accompanied them for a visit.

Mrs. J. K. Hudson, of Topeka, Kan., came in Monday to visit with Mr. Hudson and her many friends here, as she was formerly a resident of our city, and it is just like visiting home.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of J. F. Gibbs in another column, and when you need an attorney or an abstract, J. F. is the man who will attend to your business promptly, correctly and reasonably.

E. A. Williams, the grocer, is now located in the room on south side of the new Mason & Hardy block, on Newton street. He has elegant quarters and expects to keep an up-to-date stock. Ed. wants his friends to drop in and see him, and proposes to treat his customers right at any cost.

Mrs. J. G. Briggs and daughter, Mrs. Ireland, left last week for Des Moines, Iowa, to visit relatives. Mr. B. sent with them a supply of Morgan county apples for display in the business windows of Des Moines, and show the Iowa people what they are missing by not living in Morgan Co.

The carpenters have the joists in for the lower floor of the Odd Fellow building, and the brick layers will soon be at work. We would advise them to put in a furnace and electric light plant so they can work day and night, freeze or no freeze, to make up for lost time.

A. L. Ross, of the Bank of Versailles, did not leave for New Mexico as advertised. The new fixtures for the Bank arrived the latter part of the week, and he just had to stay to see how they looked up. They look all right. Since hearing of the blizzards in N. M. it is likely he will decide to remain in Versailles, where blizzards never—well, that is, hardly ever—come.

There stands a good chance for a chilly time in this town the 6th day of November, for the Ladies of the Presbyterian church have concluded to serve a "Chili Lunch" on Election day, and every one wants to get ready to eat "Chili" with them. Some of course will be more chilly than others, but all can even up matters on the "chilly" line by partaking of the Chili Lunch, which will be served both day and night, on election day.

That Chicken-Poosum Supper.

The "King's Daughters," of the Presbyterian church, scored a big success with their chicken supper and bazar at the Opera House Tuesday evening, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. There was a large attendance, and the supply of hot chicken pie, and roast possum and sweet potatoes, with the other good things, disappeared as the dew before the morning sun.

Grand Republican Rally

At Versailles, Mo.,
Saturday, November 3d, 1906.

Hon. Herbert S. Hadley,

Attorney General, and the man who is making the trusts weary, will be the orator of the day. There will be a number of other noted Republican speakers present, and as this will be the wind-up of the campaign in Morgan County, every citizen of the county, irrespective of politics, should be present. Good music will be furnished by the Windsor Band, one of the best in the state. A grand time is promised.
